Your gateway to the North

The Rinkok Resort Hotel is situated in the center of one of the most exotic and fascinating areas of the world; Chiang Rai. Chiang Rai is Thailand's northernmost province and is bordered by the neighbouring states of Laos and Burma. The ancient city of Chiang Rai was once the capital of the fabled Lanna kingdom. It was founded in 1262 by King Mengrai as he began to extend his domain southwards. According to legend the city was built on the spot where he found his favorite elephant. He felt that the site along the banks of the Kok River was an auspicious one and thus Chiang Rai came into being.

Relatively inaccessible until recently, Chiang Rai still retains its unique and natural charm. The city is perfectly situated for exploring Thailand's northern areas. Within one or two hours drive are ancient historical towns such as Chiang Saen and exciting places of tourist interest like Mae Sai on the Thai—Burmese border, the Golden Triangle (about 10 kilometers from Chiang Saen) and Doi Mae Salong. The surrounding mountains and forests are home to the many colorful mountain tribes of the north such as Lisu, Lahu, Yao and Karen.

The Rimkok Resort Hotel, with 248 superior and 8 executive suites, offers the delightful combination of the refined and gracious service of traditional Northern Thai hospitality, and the modern conveniences and luxury of a first class resort hotel. The stylish interior creates a unique and charming atmosphere to make your stay pleasant and relaxing.

The Rimkok Resort Hotel provides a spacious banquet hall large enough to accommodate 360 persons. It is equipped with all technical facilities to serve conventions, conferences, seminars and meetings.

The resort's sports complex provides the leisure delights of a very large swimming pool and outdoor jacuzzi as well as a jogging trail winding over the whole of the resort.

Additional facilities include the elegant Sipsong Panna Dining room, the pleasant Saenwee Coffee Shop, the Heritage Grill, the Kinnaree Bar, and the cosy and intimate Rimkok Lounge.
